

PIANCAVALLO

Wrapped in its white velvety mantle in winter and green in summer, it is the tourist locality par excellence in the Province. A paradise for skiers, with its many runs with perfect snow on which to practice downhill, cross-country and snowboarding, courses that have also hosted trials for the World Cup. The village of igloos on the summit of the Tremol is unusual. In summer the thousands of pathways lend themselves to trekking and mountain biking, to discovering refuges and cheese houses.
