

MUNICIPALITY OF CORDENONS

Imagine that princes, ladies and knights, tired from the long journey, in the time of the Longobards stayed in the Curtis Regia Naonis. Still today, as then, the landscape that made the setting for the residences of the nobles remains unchanged: "the Friulian steppes" of the Magredi, great expanses of shingle and spontaneous vegetation in the Meduna and Cellina riverbeds. For its great wealth of nature this area is part of the Community sites of interest.
